Have you ever wondered if anyone can keep their word anymore? Have you ever thought, "There's got to be more to life than this?" There is One who says what He means, means what He says and His promises will not be broken.

"Promises You Can Count On" digs into Scripture and illustrates some of God's promises. Using her own life as an example, Natalie will take you on a journey through those promises, showing you how you can claim them for your own. Watch and see how your life can change when you allow God's promises to fill your life.
